

ForestConnect Forest Herbicide Quick Reference Resource Guide¹

Always read and follow the pesticide label. The applicator is typically the person responsible for ensuring a safe and effective treatment. Pesticide regulations vary by state. Check with your local office of Cooperative Extension for the relevant guidelines.

Internet resources

Cornell's Pesticide Management Education Program	http://pmep.cce.cornell.edu/
NYS Product Information and Labels	http://pims.psur.cornell.edu/
NYS DEC Bureau of Pesticides	www.dec.ny.gov/about/640.html
Penn State Forestry Extension – Forest Pesticide Use Manual	http://pubs.cas.psu.edu/freepubs/pdfs/UH174.pdf (or at www.ForestConnect.info via publications)
PSU Forest Vegetation Management	http://fvm.cas.psu.edu
US Environmental Protection Agency	www.epa.gov/pesticides/index.htm
Cornell ForestConnect publications page	www.ForestConnect.info see also http://CornellForestConnect.ning.com
Herbicide supplies	http://fvm.cas.psu.edu/providers.htm

Active Ingredients and Example Trade Names

Glyphosate	Accord concentrate, Round-up Pro, Razor Pro
Imazapyr	Arsenal, Stalker, Chopper (this active ingredient is reported to flash to non target species)
Triclopyr	Garlon 3A, Garlon 4, Garlon 4 ultra, Pathfinder II
Pichloram	Tordon

¹ The information provided here is intended strictly as an example of resources available to pesticide applicators. All pesticides should be used in strict compliance with the label and only by qualified personnel. Any mention of trade names and vendors is for reference purposes and does not imply an endorsement. Omission of trade names and vendors does not imply their lack of quality, performance or service.